

Black Shield's father was a Crow Indian Came Four Times but he grew up with a stepfather, Big Coat or Plain Tail. Thinks Black Shield got it of Cherry Necklace, who was his maternal grandmother's brother. Cherry Necklace was dead at this time when he was giving the ceremony. Rule is for a man to tell his father about it and then go to a man of his father's clan to get the things together, does not know just who it was but it would be someone of the Low Hat.

The one in this case getting the most goods was Old W Crawling.
