Behavior Disclosure:

We are committed to maintaining a safe learning environment. As part of that commitment, Indiana University requires applicants to disclose the following information:

Have you been subject to formal disciplinary action (including for example, but not limited to, suspension or expulsion) for academic or non-academic reasons at any high school, post-secondary institution, college, or university?

Yes No

Have you ever been charged or convicted of a crime (or a foreign legal equivalent) that has not been expunged by a court? Also select "yes" if you have currently pending criminal charges (or a foreign legal equivalent) against you.

Yes No

Have you engaged in any behavior that caused injury to any person(s) or property (including, for example, but not limited to, vandalism or behavior that led to a restraining order against you) which resulted in some form of discipline or intervention?

Yes No

If you answered "yes" to any of these questions:

Please provide a written explanation and attach any relevant documentation. Please provide a complete explanation (in English) of the disciplinary action, charges, conviction, or other behavior that caused injury to person(s) or property which resulted in some form of discipline or intervention; the dates and court disposition (court ruling or result), the location (city, state, and country), the impact the incident(s) had on you, and a statement granting your permission to officials at all institutions and agencies to release information needed by IU to substantiate statements made in your application or letter.

A previous disciplinary action, charge, conviction, or conduct of the sort identified here does not automatically disqualify applicants from admission to IU, but they do require review by the campus admissions committee. Furthermore, the review of any behavior disclosure information provided will be conducted independently of the evaluation of your academic eligibility for admission and will only be shared with the admissions committee and/or with other officials at IU who have a need to know as part of the behavior review process.

By submitting your application to Indiana University, you acknowledge and agree that you have a continuing obligation to inform the University of any formal disciplinary action for academic or non-academic reasons at any educational institution; any legal charges and/or convictions (or foreign legal equivalents) that have not been expunged by a court; and/or any behavior that causes injury to person(s) or property which results in some form of discipline or intervention.

You must provide updated information to the campus admissions committee prior to class attendance. At that time, the campus admissions committee will review the information provided and may consider whether to delay or rescind your admission to IU.

Your signature here gives Indiana University permission to access all pertinent records related to the information you have provided.
