Academic Appointments

Since 2016 Associate Professor, Indiana University Bloomington
Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Adjunct Associate Professor of Cognitive Science Program
Adjunct Associate Professor of Department of Linguistics
Director, Language and Cognition Laboratory

2018-2023 Director of Graduate Studies
Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Indiana University Bloomington

Fall 2018 Interim Chair, Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Indiana University Bloomington

2016-2017 Director of Graduate Studies
Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Indiana University Bloomington

2009- 2016 Assistant Professor, Indiana University Bloomington
Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Adjunct Assistant Professor of Cognitive Science (since 12/2009)
Adjunct Assistant Professor of Linguistics (since 12/2009)
Director, Language and Cognition Laboratory

2016 Interim Director, Flagship Chinese Institute
Indiana University Bloomington

2013-2014 Director of Undergraduate Studies
Department of East Asian Languages and Cultures
Indiana University Bloomington

2006-2009 Assistant Professor, National Taiwan Normal University
Department of English (the Linguistics Branch)
Director, Language and Cognition Laboratory

Education

- 2006 Ph.D. Joint Ph.D. in Linguistics and Anthropology, The University of Arizona
(Advisors: Thomas G. Bever and Jane H. Hill)
- 2004 M.A. Linguistics, The University of Arizona
- 1999 M.A. Linguistics, National Cheng-Chi University
- 1996 B.A. English, National Cheng-Chi University

The Second Summer School on Statistical Methods for Linguistics and Psychology, University of Potsdam (2018)

Linguistic Society of America Summer Institutes: University of California, Santa Barbara (2001),

Invited Colloquium/Keynote Talks

1. Lin, Chien-Jer Charles. (2022). Syntactic dependency and complexity in translational thinking. Keynote speech at the 23rd National Conference on Linguistics (第23屆全國語言學論文研討會), National Cheng-Chi University, October 28, 2022.
2. Lin, Chien-Jer Charles. (2022). Processing considerations of translational Chinese treebank. (翻译汉语树库的加工问题). Invited keynote speech at The RUC-IU Workshop on Language and Computation: Cross-lingual Perspectives. (中国人民大学—印第安纳大学合作论坛:语言与计算-跨语言视角). January 21–22, 2022.
3. Translational Chinese: Syntactic Complexity and Processing (翻譯式中文的句法與認知). Invited colloquium lecture given at the Graduate Institute of Linguistics, National Taiwan University, December 12, 2018.

4. Experimental and Typological Approaches to Chinese Linguistics at Indiana University. Invited talk given at 2018 International Forum on Chinese Language and Culture, Indiana University Bloomington, May 7-9, 2018.
5. Why is westernized Chinese so damn hard? clauses (西化中文為何艱難?). Chinese Tidings Lecture, Flagship Chinese Program, Indiana University Bloomington, February 2018.
6. Processing prenominal relative clauses in Mandarin Chinese: Forms and functions. Invited colloquium lecture given at the Department of Linguistics, University of Hawaii at Mānoa, October 18, 2017.
7. Syntactic complexity and linguistic authenticity of westernized Chinese. Invited colloquium lecture given at the Department of East Asian Languages and Literatures, University of Hawaii at Mānoa, October 17, 2017.
8. Head-final (Chinese) relative clause processing: Past, present, and future. Invited guest lecture, East Asian Languages and Cultures, University of Southern California. March 23, 2015.
9. The influence of non-alphabetic phonetic orthography on Mandarin speech perception. Mellon Innovating International Research, Teaching, and Collaboration (MIIRT) 2014 Annual Workshop. Office of the Vice Provost for Research, Indiana University. September 13, 2014.
10. Comprehension and production of Chinese relative clauses. Developmental Cognitive Neuroscience Lab, Department of Psychological and Brain Sciences, c. April 11, 2013.
11. Understanding Chinese relative clause processing. Beckman Institute & Department of Psychology, University of Illinois, Urbana Champaign. April 7, 2011.
12. Linguistic issues in Chinese-English translations: The case of relative clauses (淺談英漢翻譯的語言問題：以關係子句為例). Chinese Tidings Lecture Series, Indiana University (印大東風講座). November 11, 2010. (talk given in Chinese with simultaneous translation in English)
13. Understanding relative clause processing in Mandarin Chinese. Department of English, National Taiwan Normal University. June 11, 2010.
14. Thematic patterns and comprehending Chinese relative clauses in context. Indiana University Linguistics Colloquium Series, Indiana University. October 16, 2009.
15. Thematic priming and the comprehension of Chinese relative clauses in context. Southern Taiwan Psycholinguistics Circle, National Cheng-Kung University. June 5, 2009.
16. How to read English texts. Service Lecture in the Series on Learning Strategies, National Taiwan Normal University. May 4, 2009. [available as an online e-course at the open courseware of NTNU]
17. Introduction to psycholinguistics for Taiwanese language teachers. Service Lecture for the Taiwanese Language Teaching Camp, National Taiwan Normal University. April 4, 2009.
18. Garden path in the comprehension of head-final relative clauses. National Chung-Cheng University. October 20, 2008. (Invited by Niina Zhang & James Myers)
19. Garden path in the comprehension of head-final relative clauses. Lab of Brain and Language Acquisition, Hiroshima University. July 28, 2008. (Invited by Hiromu Sakai)
20. (In)alienable possessions in Mandarin: Representation and processing. Graduate Institute of Linguistics, Fu-Jen Catholic University. December 14, 2006.
21. Representing and processing (in)alienable possessions in Mandarin. Graduate Institute of Linguistics, National Cheng-Chi University. December 6, 2006.
22. Nouns that take arguments: Representing and processing (in)alienable possessions in Mandarin. Department of English, National Taiwan Normal University. November 28, 2006.
23. Universal subject preference in processing relative clauses. Language Engineering Lab at Chinese University of Hong Kong. December 9, 2005.
24. When the filler precedes the gap: Processing Chinese possessor relative clauses. Graduate Institute of Linguistics, National Cheng-Chi University. December 5, 2005.

Awards and Honors

05/2022 Uehara Distinguished Service Award, Indiana University

05/2016 Indiana University Trustees Teaching Award, Indiana University
 05/2010 Best Paper in Interdisciplinary Studies of Chinese Linguistics, The International Association of Chinese Linguistics
 12/2005 International Young Scholar Award, The 19th Pacific Asia Conference on Language, Information and Computation (PACLIC19)
 11/2005 The Asian American Faculty, Staff, & Alumni Association (AAFSAA) Grants Program, University of Arizona
 08/2005 Dissertation Scholarship, Ministry of Education of Taiwan
 11/2005 Mary Alice Sherry Helm Scholarship, Department of Anthropology, University of Arizona
 03/2004 Janet Upjohn Stearns Foundation Fellowship, Department of Anthropology, University of Arizona
 06/2003 LSA Summer Institute Scholarship, Michigan State University
 01/2003 Fulbright-Hays Professional Enhancement Grant
 08/2001 Fulbright Program for Scholarly Exchange (Fulbright scholar) 08/2001-07/2003
 06/2001 Chao Yuan-Ren Foundation Scholarship for LSA Summer Institute at UC Santa Barbara
 04/1997 Chiang Ching-Kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange travel grant

Research Grants

Research Grants since 2009 (in reverse order of starting date)

Indiana University – Renmin University Strategic Seed Fund

Co-Principal Investigator (with Sandra Kuebler and Xinyue Yao; graduate student: Hai Hu)

Constructing a multi-genre treebank of translated and non-translated Chinese.

07/2019–12/2022.

Award amount: $20,000

Faculty Research Support Program, Indiana University

Co-Principal Investigator (with Isabelle Darcy)

The second language mental lexicon: nature and scope of first language interference.

08/2018–12/2019.

Award amount: $36,809

Faculty Research Grant for International Research Planning and Initiation, School of Global and International Studies, Indiana University

Principal Investigator

Syntactic effects on the production of sandhi tones: A corpus study of Taiwan Mandarin.

12/2018.

Award amount: $680

Faculty Research Grant for International Research Planning and Initiation, School of Global and International Studies, Indiana University

Principal Investigator

A corpus study of syntactic complexity in translational Chinese.

12/2017–05/2018.

Award amount: $2,470

Indiana University Research Equipment Fund (from Vice President of Research)

Co-Principal Investigator (with Nozomi Tanaka)

Relative clause processing in typologically distinctive languages.

10/2017–05/2018.

Award amount: $34,680

Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange Scholar Grant

Principal Investigator

Hearing phonetic notations: How pinyin/zhuyin influences the perception of Mandarin syllables.

07/2017–06/2018.

Award amount: $20,000

(Co-sponsored by a matching fund from the Office of the Vice Provost for Research and School of Global and International Studies of Indiana University)

Collaborative Research and Creative Activity Funding (CRCAF), Indiana University

Principal Investigator

The electroencephalography of phonetic notation effects on Chinese syllable processing.

06/2017–07/2017.

Award amount: $19,727

Center for Advanced Study of Language, University of Maryland

Linguistic correlates of Chinese language proficiency.

07/2015–11/2015.

Award amount: $29,698

The Andrew W. Mellon Foundation Innovating International Research, Teaching and Collaboration Short Term Faculty Fellowship, Indiana University

Principal Investigator

The influence of non-alphabetic orthography on Mandarin speech perception.

09/2013–6/2016.

Award amount: $19,995

Chiang Ching-kuo Foundation for International Scholarly Exchange Junior Scholar Grant

Principal Investigator

Restrictiveness and Chinese relative clauses: Perspectives from sentence processing.

01/2013–07/2013.

Award amount: $25,000

EALC Research Grant, Indiana University

Principal Investigator

Restrictive and nonrestrictive relative clauses in Chinese: Sentence production experiments.

05/2012–12/2013.

Award amount: $2,124

Faculty Research Support Program, Indiana University

Principal Investigator

Floating thematic templates and Chinese sentence comprehension.

09/2011–12/2013.

Award amount: $61,700

Teaching Grants

College of Arts and Sciences Course Development Grant, Indiana University

Title: Language and Thinking: Linguistic Communications in a Global Context (a course to be jointly listed by East Asian Languages and Cultures and International Studies).

6/2016

Award amount: $8,000

Workshop/Conference Grants

Grant in Support of Workshop and Symposia, College Arts and Humanities Institute, Indiana University Bloomington

Title: The 34th North American Conference on Chinese Linguistics.

12/2021–12/2022

Award amount: $7,600

National Science of Council (of Taiwan) Grants (2006–2009)

1 Principal Investigator

National Science Council of Taiwan Research Grant 98-2410-H-003-044 [declined due to relocation]

Contextual factors in the processing of Chinese relative clauses. 08/2009–07/2010.

2 Principal Investigator

- National Science Council of Taiwan Undergraduate Research Grant
Processing restrictive and nonrestrictive relative clauses in Chinese. (Funded student: Michelle Yi-Syuan Liou). 08/2009–03/2010.
- 3 Principal Investigator
National Science Council of Taiwan Research Grant 97-2410-H-003-044
The arguments and adjuncts of nouns: Typology, syntactic representations, and processing of (in)alienable possessions II. 08/2008–07/2009.
- 4 Principal Investigator
National Science Council of Taiwan Undergraduate Research Grant
Perception of Mandarin monosyllables: The influence of phonetic transcription systems on the interaction between tonal and segmental information. (Funded student: Vicky Hsin-Ni Lin). 08/2008–03/2009.
- 5 Co-Principal Investigator
National Science Council Special Grant for Linguistics Library Establishment at NTNU. Theme: Linguistic Typology. 12/2007–11/2008.
- 6 Principal Investigator
National Science Council of Taiwan Research Grant 96-2411-H-003-035
The arguments and adjuncts of nouns: Typology, syntactic representations, and processing of (in)alienable possessions. 08/2007–07/2008.
- 7 Principal Investigator
National Science Council of Taiwan Research Grant 95-2411-H-003-056
Processing strategies during sentence comprehension: An examination of experimental paradigms. 12/2006–07/2007.

Other Research Grants

- 1 Principal Investigator (with Naomi Ogasawara)
National Taiwan Normal University Research Grant for Large Equipment Project: Monitoring Eye Movements in Language and Cognition. 2,950,000 NTD (98,300 USD). [Purchase of an Eyelink 2k eye-tracker and constructing a phonetics sound booth]. 10/2008
- 2 Principal Investigator
National Taiwan Normal University Research Grant for Junior Faculty
The arguments and adjuncts of nouns: typology, syntactic representations, and processing of (in)alienable possessions. 7/2008–12/2008.
- 3 Principal Investigator
National Taiwan Normal University Research Grant for Junior Faculty
Processing strategies during sentence comprehension: An examination of experimental paradigms. 12/2006–07/2007.

Travel Grants

- 10/2019 EASC travel grant ($500), Indiana University
- 10/2018 EASC travel grant ($1,000), Indiana University
- 10/2017 EASC conference travel grant ($1,000), Indiana University
- 05/2017 Grant for Scholarly Communication and Collaboration ($800), School of Global and International Studies, Indiana University
- 05/2017 EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
- 02/2016 Grant for Scholarly Communication and Collaboration ($500), School of Global and International Studies, Indiana University
- 03/2015 EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
- 03/2014 EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
- 03/2014 EALC conference travel grant ($250), Indiana University
- 03/2013 EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
- 03/2013 EALC conference travel grant ($300), Indiana University
- 03/2012 Overseas Conference Grant from the Office of the Vice President for International

	Affairs ($600), Indiana University
02/2012	EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
05/2011	EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University
05/2010	EASC conference travel grant ($500), Indiana University

Advising and Supervising

A. Ph.D. Dissertation Supervision

- Ongoing PhD supervision (as primary advisor):
 - Tzu-I Chiang, How the Brain Maps Time: A Linguistic Investigation on Temporal-Aspectual Processing in Mandarin Chinese; Qualifying Exam completed in December 2019
 - Alessia Cherici, Processing Counterfactuality in L2 Chinese; Qualifying Exam completed in December 2020
 - Yung-Yung Chang, Animacy and Chinese Relative Clauses: Corpus and Production; Qualifying Exam completed in December 2021
 - Pre-Dissertation Students: Zeping Liu, Xiao Dong, Chun Hau Ngai
- Li, Larry Hong-Lin. (2010). Syntactic cues and linguistic individuation: Evidence from Chinese nouns and shape classifiers. Ph.D. Dissertation, National Taiwan Normal University. (co-directed with Jen Ting) [currently Professor at National Taiwan University of Arts]
- Lai, Yu-Da Stephen. (2010). Processing relative clauses in English as L2: An on-line study. Ph.D. Dissertation, National Taiwan Normal University. (co-directed with Chun-Yin Chen) [winner of the Language Training and Testing Center (LTTC) Award for the Best Ph.D. dissertation in 2010] [currently Associate Professor at Providence University]

B. MA Thesis/Essay/Project Supervision

- Dong, Xiao. (2021). The acquisition of Chinese tones by L2 learners. MA pedagogy project.
- Chang, Yung-Yung. (2021). Nandao-question as a rhetorical question: A corpus-based analysis of structural priming in Chinese. MA project in Chinese language pedagogy, Indiana University.
- Harding, Jessica. (2015). Intactness and entity construal in Chinese and English: The effect of classifiers and count syntax. MA essay in Chinese Linguistics, Indiana University. [Completed May 2015]
- Liu, Meng. (2015). The production and perception of Mandarin tones in context. MA project in Chinese language pedagogy, Indiana University. [currently Ph.D. student at East Asian Languages and Cultures at University of Illinois Urbana-Champaign] [Completed April 2015]
- Dabney, Nicole. (2014). The influence of discourse particles on listeners' perception of speakers in Mandarin. MA thesis in Chinese Linguistics, Indiana University. [Completed October 2014]
- Chu, Chiao-Mei. (2012). Study on bottom-up and top-down reading strategies for intermediate Chinese learners. MA project in Chinese language pedagogy, Indiana University. [Completed Spring 2012]
- Chang, Paul Yuchun. (2009). The processing of metaphorical senses: Context, category, and relative frequency. MA Thesis, National Taiwan University. (co-directed with Kathleen Ahrens) [Ph.D. of Linguistics at University of Munich, Big Data Engineer, Micron Technology, Inc.]
- Chen, Clara Yi-Rung. (2009). The effect of sense relatedness on lexical ambiguity resolution: Evidence from Chinese verbs. MA Thesis, National Taiwan Normal University.
- Ning, Li-Hsin. (2008). The grammar and processing of resumptive pronouns in Chinese relative clauses. MA Thesis, National Cheng-Chi University. (co-directed with One-Soon Her) [recipient of the 2nd prize of the best linguistics MA thesis in Taiwan in 2008 from the Linguistic Society of Taiwan] [Ph.D. of Linguistics at UIUC, currently Associate Professor of Linguistics at National Taiwan Normal University]

C. BA Thesis Supervision

- Jacqueline Vanderkolk. 2016. Language identity and Chineseness for Taiwan. Capstone BA essay. School of Global and International Studies. Indiana University.
- Liou, Michelle Yi-Syuan. 2010. Processing restrictive and nonrestrictive relative clauses in Chinese. NSC-funded Undergraduate Honors Thesis, National Taiwan Normal University. [Ph.D. of Speech and

Hearing Sciences, University of Kansas]

3. Lin, Vicky Hsin-Ni. 2009. Perception of Mandarin monosyllables: The influence of phonetic transcription systems on the interaction between tonal and segmental information. NSC-funded Undergraduate Honors Thesis, National Taiwan Normal University.

D. Supervision of Ph.D. Qualifying Papers

1. Chen, Yi-An. (Linguistics PhD at IU), qualifying paper committee member [approved; Fall 2020-Summer 2022, chaired by Obeng]
2. Kovalev, Pavel. (Linguistics & Mathematics PhD at IU), qualifying paper committee member [approved; Fall 2020- Summer 2022, chaired by Thomas Grano]
