

Fall Faculty Meeting
October 31, 2003
School of Education - IUB - Auditorium
School of Education - IUPUI – ES 2132
Videoconference
9:00 a.m. - 10:30 a.m.

- I. Dean's Report - Dean Gonzalez
Dean Gonzalez welcomed new president, President Adam Herbert, to IU. Due to the Chancellor's resignation, trustees will meet soon to begin the search for a replacement.
- II. Introductions of new faculty
- C&I – Susan introduced Carrie Chapman, Rob Kunzman, Marjorie Manifold, Troy Sadler, Dick Caulfield, and Melissa Keller.
 - Language Ed - Mary Beth introduced Faridah Pawan, Gerald Campano, Gary Kilar, and Debbie Munzyn.
 - ELPS - Barry introduced Heidi Ross, Vasti Torres, and Rob Toutkoushian.
 - CEP - Tom Huberty introduced Rebecca Martinez.
 - IUPUI – Khaula introduced Alex Hall, Carol Matern, and Trish Wyse.
 - Staff - Mary Howard Hamilton introduced Kimberly Fraizer, Yunika Jackson.
 - Pete introduced Larry Riss.
- III. Retreat
Chalmer Thompson commented on this year's faculty retreat, which was themed "Building Community through Exploring Issues of Equity and Diversity."
- IV. State of the School
- a. Enrollment trends
- Diana Lambdin, Associate Dean of Teacher Ed, reported on the enrollment of students in Teacher Education.
- Mary Howard Hamilton, Associate Dean of Graduate Studies reported that total graduate enrollment is 1130 students.

SoE Graduate Enrollment – by degree

Fall 2002 vs. Fall 2003

* Excluding M9 students

Size of Entering Classes – by degree

Fall 2002 vs. Fall 2003

* Excluding M9 students

b. Research Productivity

Cathy Brown, Associate Dean of Research and Development, commented on the external funding data, presented an explanation of the structure of the ERIC centers, and reported that Indiana Center for Evaluation (ICE) and Indiana Education Policy Center (IEPC) are merging to form the Center for Evaluation and Education Policy (CEEP). A new center, Center of Post Secondary Research (CPR), and the Center for Research on Learning and Technology (CRLT) will be moving all of its projects to the fifth floor of Eignemann.

c. Budget

Pete Kloosterman, Executive Associate Dean, discussed the School of Education's budget.

d. Development/external relations

The fundraising productivity report and a new fundraising program for graduate fellowships, undergrad scholarships, and faculty endowment were discussed.

Cash Receipts & Donor Count 3 year comparison

	2000-01	2001-02	2002-03
Total Donors	5,586	6,128	6,430
Cash Receipts	$743,952	$1,302,178	$866,669*

In FY03, 1.3% of the donors gave 57% of the dollars. 60% of the dollars are restricted.

Fundraising Productivity Report: 3 Year Comparison

	2000-01	2001-02	2001-02
Documented Gifts & Pledges	$ 545,961	$1,197,973	$ 792,859
Documented Expectancies	$ 40,000	$ 55,000	$1,402,048
Total	$ 585,961	$1,252,973	$2,194,907

V. RCM and Assessments

Dean Gonzalez reported on undergraduate and graduate student fees, assessments, enrollment, and faculty searches.

VI. Discussion on Reorganization

Don Cunningham discussed the committee's collaboration regarding program development and reorganization.

VII. Quick Reports

- The Academic Affairs website has been updated.
- P-16 sent out an email. Plan has been adopted.
- CID Project announced that the Teacher Portfolio Colloquium is next Friday, Nov 7th, 9 – 4pm.
- The Standards committee made recommendations to Policy Council to fund support research on impact of academic standards.
- CUME reported that community engagement, assessment, culture and learning, leadership and transforming schools. NUTC put into place full support for new teachers in urban schools, and the online portal is in its second year.
- Partnerships worked with department chairs so that each department in faculty meetings can engage faculty support. Task force will then take results and look for cross department collaborations that should be happening.
- The Commitment Excellence committee is asking for proposals. There are three proposals that they want to move ahead on. Contacts are Peg Sutton, Autism (Sam Odom and Ginny Williamson), and Enid Zimmerman and Lara Lackey.