

Traditional Certification Route:

Undergraduate Students

➤ B.S. in Education | IU School of Education

The School of Education prepares students for:

- Secondary Education (Middle and High School) majors must check with the Office of Undergraduate and Teacher Education (UTE) for changes in requirements.

Required Courses for Math Education Major:

<https://education.indiana.edu/students/undergraduates/academic-advising/program-sheets/docs/2022/majors/Secondary-Education/Mathematics-May-2022.pdf>

Traditional Certification Route: Undergraduate Students (continued)

B.S. in Education | Degree Requirements:

- Minimum overall IU GPA of 2.5
- Minimum of 120 credit hours:
 - School of Education Credit Hours: minimum of 75% (90) credit hours must be earned in School of Education coursework.
 - Upper Division Credit Hours: Minimum of 40% (48) credit hours must be at the 300-400 level
 - Residency: Minimum of 30 of the last 60 credit hours must be completed in courses taken through the Indiana University Bloomington campus or an IU-administered or IU co-sponsored Overseas Study program

