

OSTROM WORKSHOP

The Following Events are planned to celebrate the 50th anniversary year of the Ostrom Workshop.

Date	Event	Description
January 19, 2023	The 50th Anniversary of the Instantiation of the Ostrom Workshop	Today we celebrate the 50th Anniversary of the instantiation of the Ostrom Workshop at Indiana University Bloomington by Lin and Vincent Ostrom. An idea inspired from working with carpenters to build furniture for their home, the Workshop became a place where thousands of apprentices, students, and scholars from multiple countries and disciplines learned from one another. It continues to echo Lin and Vincent's beliefs that understanding good research demands a vast array of skills and methods, and that collaboration is essential. Join us in celebrating their legacy!
January 23, 2023	Ribbon Cutting Ceremony, Celebratory Colloquium, and Lunch Reception	Join the IU Provost Rahul Shrivastav and the Office of the Vice President of Research's Brea Perry as we cut the ribbon on our new porch and begin the official celebration of the 50 years with the Ostrom Workshop. Dr. Lauren MacLean presents the first Colloquium of the year and it is followed by a catered lunch and cake.
March 8, 2023	International Women's Day	Celebrate Elinor Ostrom's distinction of the first woman to receive the Nobel Prize in Economics. In recognition, the Workshop will reveal their new lamp post flags in front of 513 N. Park Avenue AND partner with the IU Museum of Archeology & Anthropology (IUMAA) for a special online exhibit of the Ostrom artifacts.
April 13, 2023, 3 PM	IUMAA Coffee and Curators Series	The IUMAA will present a short online program about the Ostrom Collection as part of their "Coffee and Curators" series
April 17, 2023	Barb Allen visit and Hootenany	Ostrom student Barb Allen and guest speaker Professor Lindsey Flynn visit the Workshop. Barb Allen hosts the Colloquium and Linsey Flynn to provide a research talk. As a nod to the hootenany's of past Workshoppers, an evening of appetizers and music is planned.
April 23-29, 2023	Earth Day and Lin's Uncommon Life Book Launch	The Ostrom Workshop will celebrate Earth Day with relevant speakers throughout the Month of April along with a celebratory Research Series on April 26, 2023 and a book launch and signing of the children's book about Elinor Ostrom's life, by Scott Shackelford and Emily Castle, "Lin's Uncommon Life".

OSTROM WORKSHOP

August 2023	50th Anniversary Welcome Workshop Open House & Barbeque	Celebrate the return of the Nobel Prize in Economics to the Ostrom Workshop as we welcome our visiting scholars, student award recipients, and affiliates with an Open House and Barbeque. Music by the Jacobs School to accompany the event.
September 2023	First Colloquium, Celebration of the Commons Research	The first colloquium of our 50 th fall will be a unique two hour colloquium with a special Commons Panel moderated by Insa Theesfeld (former Commons director), and a Commons Themed Colloquium to honor the Ostrom's Work and Research in this area.
October 2023	Ostrom Memorial Lecture and Banquet	The Ostrom Memorial Lecture will be a lovely event with an Introduction by Executive Director Scott Shackelford reflecting on the progression of the Workshop over the past 50 years and an honorary speaker. Following will be a Jacobs School of Music Reception for all attendees and an invitation only banquet in the library.
TBD	Pavilion Ground Breaking	In honor of the Ostrom's emphasis on collaboration, the Ostrom Workshop will build an outdoor pavilion for gatherings and discussions on Park Avenue. A ceremonial groundbreaking will be planned.
December 2023	Holiday Jingle and Mingle Reception	An informal open house of festivities with a sharing of visiting scholars home made dishes, music, and gifts